NEW YORK - On Nov. 3 Animal Care & Control of NYC (AC&C) will host a smashing 1950's Gala at the Union Square Ballroom at 27 Union Square West where people can dance the night away to live 1950's hits by the band Just Friends, enjoy a delicious array of food, including vegetarian dishes, and beverages.. The event will also feature a silent auction.

The 1950's Gala will benefit programs and services for homeless and abandoned animals of NYC that AC&C rescues, cares for, and helps find loving "forever" homes. Hundreds of guests from around NYC are expected to attend this dapper event to make a difference in the lives of thousands of unwanted animals most in need.

"We are very excited about this fun and exciting 1950's Gala that will help to raise funds for the animals in our care," said Julie Bank, executive director for Animal Care & Control of NYC. "Guests will be able to support our important mission while having a great time. A big thanks to our sponsors who will make this event possible including BTQ Financial, MBL Consulting, Marston PR, Merck Animal Health, Joanne and Joseph Vitulli and United States Merchants Protective Services."

About Animal Care & Control

Animal Care & Control of New York City (AC&C) is the largest pet organization in the Northeast, with nearly 40,000 animals rescued each year. As a non-profit organization since 1995, AC&C has been responsible for New York City's municipal shelter system; rescuing, caring for and finding loving homes for homeless and abandoned animals in New York City. AC&C facilities operate in all five boroughs to service all NYC communities.
